

I was shocked to see how Sinclair Broadcasting will apparently be allowed to flout the rules of the FCC by televising "Stolen Honor." As a public broadcast system, they should be required to follow regulations. I wish we had a free press again.